Return Drafts

Please notify the membership office of any account changes as soon as possible to prevent any other draft charges. If a check draft is returned for any reason from the bank, there will be a bank charge in addition to the month's program dues. If a credit card draft is declined, an administration fee will be charged for the credit card to be run multiple times for approval. Any program drafts not clearing an account will be canceled for the month until fees are paid. Registration will be canceled, resulting in removal from class.
